Search Results

AVA's Recommendation:

Chartering a superyacht for 3 days typically costs between $30,000 and $50,000 on average, depending on the yacht's size, luxury level, and region. This price range generally applies to high-end vessels and includes base charter fees; additional costs for provisioning, fuel, taxes, and gratuities may increase the total. Some smaller or more modest yachts may be less expensive, while larger and more opulent superyachts can exceed this range. For the most accurate pricing, it's advisable to check with charter providers for your specific destination and requirements.
