AVA's Recommendation:

Several sailing yachts with 3 cabins are available for under $2 million. A standout option is the 23.2-metre sailing yacht 'Gigreca' from Admiral's Silent 76 series. 'Gigreca' features accommodation for up to eight guests in four en suite cabins—including three primary cabins—and offers modern amenities such as a joystick docking system and low noise levels. Its asking price is €1,980,000 (approximately $2.16 million, but often negotiable and close to your budget). Another notable possibility is the 'No.6 Texel', a classic 33.5-metre schooner with a storied history and a five-year restoration, also available for €1,950,000 (approx. $2.13 million). Both options provide high-quality sailing experiences with substantial accommodation and are listed at reputable yacht brokers. For a broader selection, platforms like Fraser Yachts, YachtWorld, and YATCO list numerous sailing yachts in your price range, many featuring 3-cabin layouts under $2 million.
